Jeremy Fehr Joins Saltbox Brewing Company

Saltbox Brewing Company is pleased to announce that Jeremy Fehr will join the company as Head Brewer, effective May 16, 2016

Jeremy graduated with honours from Niagara College, Ontario, in the Brewmaster and Brewery Operations Management course. Prior to coming to Saltbox Brewery, Jeremy was a Brewer for Neustadt Springs Brewery, Neustadt, Ontario, a brewery which has brewed several award winning beers.

“I am excited about the opportunity to get in on the ground floor of a company that shows such excellent promise”, said Fehr. He added, “All I ever want to do is brew great beer and so this is an amazing opportunity for me to demonstrate my skills and work with people dedicated to producing beer with distinctive taste and quality”

Jeremy is an award winning brewer in his own right with over 10 years brewing experience. While at College he entered several competitions where he won Gold in the Wild Beer and Sour Beer categories and Bronze Medals in the Strong Belgian Ale and Scottish Ale categories. In 2015, he achieved the distinction of a Bronze Medal finish at the US Beer Open for his Imperial Pilsener.

Jeremy has brewed for several other brewers including Brothers Brewing Company and Outlaw Brewing Company and most notably was invited by Railway City Brewing Company of St. Thomas, Ontario, to brew a batch of their flagship Dead Elephant IPA.

“Getting a dedicated and award-winning brewer is a great leap forward for us”, said Patrick Jardine, Director of Operations, “and we could not be more pleased for our customers who will experience craft beer at its best”
